

Managing Obstetric Emergencies and Trauma Course

3-5 March 2017

1-3 September 2017

The Simulation and Skills Centre
Wellington Regional Hospital
Wellington, New Zealand

Criteria for eligibility on the MOET course

Obstetricians at the level of consultant (FRANZCOG or equivalent) or obstetric registrars in their 5th or 6th year, who have satisfactorily completed both written and OSCE components of the MRANZCOG examination

Anaesthetists at the level of consultant (FANZCA or equivalent) or anaesthetic trainee in their final year, who have satisfactorily completed both written and OSCE components of the ANZCA Part 2 examination

Emergency Physicians at the level of consultant (FACEM or equivalent) or emergency registrars in their 5th year, who have satisfactorily completed both written and OSCE components of the ACEM examination

GP anaesthetists and GP obstetricians with both FRACGP (or equivalent) and Diploma in obstetrics or anaesthetics, who are currently involved in clinical obstetrics or anaesthetics as a significant component of their routine clinical work

Other medical practitioners at the level of Fellow or senior registrar may apply to ALSG to register for the MOET Course

Midwives may attend the course as observers. They pay a greatly reduced registration fee and attend all aspects of the course, however they are not required to run the scenarios and do not sit the MOET examination

Prerequisites

Candidates are expected to have read the manual before the course and completed the online learning and MCQ at least 36 hours before the course (approximately 10 to 20 hours work)
